Linked

You've probably heard about it. Maybe you signed up. Maybe accepted a few invites from people you know, but that's the end of it.

Are you saying to yourself "I'm on LinkedIn, now what? And, how do I make it work for me and my business?"

Here's what you can expect to take away from today's presentation. Stories of people just like you who have had massive success with LinkedIn and four features you must start using today (Invites, Introductions, Groups, and Answers).

SPEAKER: Katie Felten signed up as a LinkedIn user in mid-2006 and saw a great tool for connecting people. She talked to friends informally and started a networking group that turned into the LLC known as MKELive.com. She has raised herself to expert level organically; simply by talking about it.

She hosts monthly LinkedIn Live networking events in four cities, LinkedIn 101 training for individuals, has recently started corporate training sessions called LinkedIn for Enterprise how to turn your company into a LinkedIn powerhouse. She speaks at networking groups, Chambers of Commerce and conferences.

While connecting people is Katie's passion, Ms. Felten is an Account Manager at Patient Care.
